

Brazoria County Criminal District Attorney's Office has an opening for a felony prosecutor. Applicants must have at least three (3) years of criminal law practice experience (prosecutorial experience preferred) and currently licensed to practice law in The State of Texas. Applicants should have criminal trial experience. Starting annual salary range, depending on qualifications & experience is from $101,458.00 - $110,866.00 .

Our office pays bar dues and the cost of approved continuing legal education.

Email resume to Mary Aldous, First Assistant, Brazoria County District Attorney's Office at marya@brazoriacountytx.gov.

Brazoria County is a local government entity that offers competitive salaries with an excellent benefits package, which includes:

Government Pension through TCDRS with 7% fixed interest and a county match of 2:1 at retirement; we do not pay into Social Security but instead contribute to a 457 Deferred Compensation Plan as an additional savings for retirement (AUL).

Excellent medical/dental health insurance (Aetna) for employees and dependent coverage rates. Free employee health clinic and free tele-health services.

Section 125 Cafeteria Plans including- Aflac, Humana and others; free LTD; free Life Insurance coverage up to $200 (age reduction): with AD&D.

Employee Assistance Program for all employees and any member of household; 14 paid holidays, vacation and sick benefits.

At retirement, a free paid up $50K Life Insurance policy; a 401h retiree medical reimbursement plan, free access to our employee health clinic.